Payment of School Bus Fee

Payment is required upon registration. The bus service contract is committed on a termly basis (normally from August to January and February to June). For students who join the service after the start of the term, fee will be calculated by monthly pro-rata starting from the 1st day of each calendar month. Failure of full payment would result in suspension of service until fee is fully settled.

Payment should be settled by cheque made payable to 'PIPS' with the student's name and class written on the back.
